From Their Majesties

Greetings are sent on the eve of War! Unto the mighty populace of the Outlands, Your King and Queen, Maelgwn and Lillian, send words of great faith and joy. Know that We are well pleased with the preparations for the upcoming battle in Atenveldt. We thank you all for your hard work. We are proud to lead this great Kingdom to Estrella War. With Our allies, Caid, Calontir, and Trimaris We take the battle field with true honor and glory.

The upcoming Crown Tournament to determine Our Heirs will be held in Drygestan. We encourage all who qualify and wish to ascend the thrones to send letters of intent to Us by regular mail. They must be received by February 8th for consideration. Please include particulars about yourself and consort for the Crown Tournament Program fundraiser. Details about your persona, physical attributes, and words of wisdom will greatly add to the enjoyment of all and spread your fame throughout the Kingdom.

We thank all the good gentles who hosted midwinter and 12th night celebrations. It has truly been a winter that will live on in Our hearts. Congratulations to all who were acknowledged for their efforts in the arts, service, and fighting. As the winter is long, so are the courts, but they are not nearly enough to reward everyone so deserving. We encourage all to recommend good gentles for their work to Ourselves and Our future Heirs.

For those of you not in attendance at al-Barran Midwinter, We offered the Order of the Pelican to Sir Avram the Jew for his long and many years of steadfast service to this Kingdom. He has held offices in different capacities for all this time, without calling attention to himself. It is with gratitude that We thank those kind gentles who brought his work to Our attention. Come celebrate his elevation to this honorable peerage on Friday night at Estrella War during Kingdom court.

For those of you with energy left for battle after Estrella, We will attend Gulf War on March 10 thru 14. We invite all to join us. It is reported to Us that the fields are green, the skies are blue, and much fighting is to be had there. Do consider the adventure. To reserve space for tenting in the Outlands encampment, contact Comtessa AnneAliz de Bale at dgr0dm@unm.edu We are looking forward to the equestrian processional, and appreciate the offer of horses and newly made Kingdom barding from Duke Olaf's household of Bjornson in the Canton of Bofharrach. The new equestrian regalia will benefit Ourselves and Our Successors for many years to come.

Pack your wagons for the great Estrella War! Scouts report sighting over 150 merchants this year and a great quarry in which to meet our foe. Bring drums, plenty of garb, and scrolls for the Arts and Sciences competition! Don't forget documentation too, even the merest shred of evidence will garnish more points for your entry. Warriors of this Mighty Kingdom, We beseech you to bring your heavy weapons and armor. Rapier fighters bring your schlagers and guns. Archers string your bows and fletch your arrows. Check your authorization cards before leaving. Fly your banners high and stand with Us on the lush grasses of Estrella War XV. We wish you safe passage to Estrella and much rejoicing there!

From The Kingdom Seneschal

Your Kingdom Seneschal sends greetings unto the populace of the Outlands as it prepares for war.

The Estrella War is upon us! Travel safely and in numbers as you defend the honor of this glorious kingdom. Make sure your wagons are well packed and prepared, plan for varying temperatures, and send for news of weather and route conditions before travelling. The war is being held at a new site -- Schnepf Farms Festival site, 38 miles southeast of Phoenix. Remember that the troll does not accept checks, so be sure to take enough cash! Anyone taking minors who are not their own must have a signed and notarized Statement of Guardianship (this form is available from your seneschal and is included in the Red Tape issue of the Outlandish Herald as Appendix C). This should allow you to sign a waiver on site for the minor, but you may wish to get a waiver signed by the parents before leaving. Preparing these documents ahead of time and taking them with you will prevent you from being turned away at the gates because of missing paperwork. Also remember that, although there are usually some children's activities, if you bring minors, it is YOU who are ultimately responsible for their care--this is a matter to be taken very seriously.

Just a reminder that anyone who wishes to enter the Crown Tournament in March to determine Their Majesties' Heirs must submit their letters of intent by mail on or before February 8, 1999. Any potential entrants would be well-advised to read the requirements for participation in Crown Tournament which are outlined in Kingdom Law and Corpora. I look forward to seeing all of you in Their Majesties' Shire of Drygestan for Crown Tournament. This year it is on the FIRST weekend of March (March 6-7).

In April, the Barony of al-Barran will host the Kingdom Arts & Sciences Collegium. I'm sure everyone is looking forward to the many classes which will be available. In May, the Barony of Unser Hafen will host the Coronation of Their Majesties' Heirs to the Throne of the Outlands.

One final note. His Lordship Adam maintains the official Kingdom Calendar and Mistress Kathryn posts a calendar of all potential as well as official events on the Outlands Home Page on the World Wide Web. The existence of these two sources does not abbrogate groups, autocrats, and seneschals of their responsibility to speak directly with their neighbors in order to amicably plan dates for events. It is for benefit of the Kingdom and all its populace that we cooperate with each other.

In service,

Mistress Coemri

From the Kingdom Earl Marshall

Greetings Warriors!!

Estrella will soon be upon us. Because I am also King's Champion, Sir Jochen has volunteered to be Marshal In Charge. He will have full dispensation as if he were Earl Marshal. However, he can't do it alone. We and our fellow warriors need to help him.

The Outlands needs marshals to fulfill our part of the war. We will need them for the following duties:

Marshal's Point - Armor and Weapons inspections
Thursday - noon to 4pm (Syr Nasr, etc.)
Friday - noon to 8pm (Sir Haroun, etc.)
Saturday - 7am to 9am (Sir Haroun, etc.)

Combat Archery Inspection - separate from marshal's point same times as above and also between archer battles on Saturday.

Battle Field - We need 9 marshals per battle. I would prefer to get them scheduled before-hand so that marshal hunting doesn't have to take place.

These are the scenarios. Volunteer early so you get to choose. (Duke Johan has first dibs, then Syr Nasr)

SATURDAY
Open Field battles - 3 battles w/missile weapons

Bridge with ford. I'll be an armored marshal on that one, pulling out dead folks.

Wall - siege and combat archery
Town Tower - siege and combat archery

Open field

SUNDAY
Bridge

Fort

Banner resurrection.

Please pass this information on to any marshal or knight that you know, volunteer to either myself or your local knight marshal, and I will start to compile a list.

My warrant as Earl Marshal expires in March '99. If interested in the position, please send me a letter.

Thank You

Shayk al-Sidu Haroun ibn al-Dhi'b al-Abyadh

From the Kingdom Archer-General

Greetings from Lady Ailinn Shadowfox, Outlands Archer General!

Estrella War is upon us. I am looking forward to meeting many of you there. Remember to volunteer at the archery range and don't forget to sign in. Not only will these hours benefit our great Kingdom, but the hours you work will monetarily benefit your local group. We will need marshals, scorekeepers and willing bodies for setting up and taking down the range. Any and all help is greatly appreciated. There has been a plea for help running the war point range on Sunday morning. Lord Braden, Archer General from Artemisia (who recently moved there from the Outlands), has asked for our help. He is likely to be the only archer at Estrella from Artemisia and needs help running the range from 7AM till Noon on Sunday. Let's show everyone the generosity our Kingdom is known for and get some volunteers out there to help. Thank you.

We are starting to get some scores turned in for the Winter Challenge. Thank you Scorpions Hollow for your efforts to represent the Kingdom of the Outlands in this competition. I would like to encourage all groups to plan practices or tournaments that include the Winter Competition shoots in the next few months. Send your scores to Lord Damian at archer3@webtv.net if you do EMAIL or contact me to get his mailing address. May your arrows always hit your target.

In Service to the Outlands,

Lady Ailinn Shadowfox

From the Kingdom Chancellor of the Exchequer

Greetings unto the exchequers of the Outlands

Hope this missive finds everyone in good health and prosperity. I am happy to report that there is apparently one doomsday report already done. In my next missive I will get to name the exchequer and her group publicly. Way to go. I would also like to thank Mistress Coemri for allowing me to attend her meeting of seneschals at Caerthaen 12th Night.

Now down to business. There have only been three groups that have sent bank signature cards to me. As I am sure most of you are aware, the Kingdom Exchequer, that's me, must be on the signature cards. Please take care of this as soon as possible. Also check your signature cards for the Society tax number and that the account requires two signatures per check to make the check valid. These are things that I check for when signing. I have not received any frantic messages since my last missive so I assume everyone has received there packet for year end reporting. If you have any questions concerning them try to avoid the rush and ask early.

Thld Bjorn Poulson

From the Kingdom Chirurgeon

With Estrella War and other cold weather events coming up, it is important to find ways to keep warm. Even when it starts warming up during the day, it can get quite cold at night. Unless an allergy prevents it, having some garb out of wool is a very good idea. Even if it gets wet, wool will keep you warm, whereas cotton won't hold heat when wet. It is also a good idea to try your hand at period hoods and other headgear, as a majority of body heat is lost from the head. Learn to recognize the symptoms of hypothermia: Uncontrollable shivering, slurred words, and disorientation. Small children and anyone who has been drinking alcohol are at particular risk. Get the person out of the wind, and share body warmth by wrapping the victim and a volunteer together in a cloak or sleeping bag. Warn liquids are also helpful.

Thanks,

THLdy Eileen Fraser

From the Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings unto the populace of the Outlands.

By now, I hope that everyone has noticed at least one of the changes I have made to the Outlandish Herald. The one that stands out the most should be the 'at-a-glance' information that precedes each event article. This gives people the quick necessary information that answers the most common questions of 'when' and 'where'. Hopefully, you will find this useful as you prepare for those events that you have planned to attend. The other notable addition is that of the 'Event Announcement Information' on the inside back cover of the OH. This should help give both veteran and novice autocrats all the necessary information that they need to write clear, concise event articles that will contain all the necessary publication elements, and thus reduce the number of E-mails and phone calls that they will receive from either myself or my primary editor. Use the information as a checklist when writing your articles. Just mark off the boxes provided as you write. If providing that information as a full page would help, I would be happy to do so. Just let me know.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank a number of people. I want to thank THLdy Illeana de Castenada for editing articles for me. I have to do final editing, but she takes several hours off of my work load by doing all the initial edit and tracking down of missing event information. I would also like to thank Master Tamlene who handles all of my financial matters. He keeps my bank account up to date, and lets me know how it's doing. Without these two people, I would truly have no life. smile I would also like to thank Lord Mlodn the Merchant and Lady Renate Koven for their wonderful donation of a large 5-drawer filing cabinet. It's a huge black behemoth that now contains approximately half of the files that I received when I assumed this office. The other half of my files will be contained in a smaller, gray filing cabinet that was a donation from Gryffon y Mordethwyr and Nesta Coed. These kind gentles have helped me transform a morass of boxes into a fairly well-organized office. I would also like to thank the Barony of Caerthe and the Shire of Drygestan for their generous donations to the Outlandish Herald. Their generosity is a pleasant brightener to my day, and I truly appreciate the fact that they considered their newsletter during their fund-raising efforts. Finally, I want to thank the entire populace of the Outlands. Your patience with me is most appreciated and I hope that I will keep you as happy with me when I end my tenure as I hope I have made you in the beginning.

My call for artwork has been answered very admirably by a great number of gentles in the Outlands. For this, I am extremely grateful. However, some of you have forgotten to send me a release form so that I can use your beautiful work. If you have sent me artwork in the last couple of months, please send me a signed release form so that I can start exhibiting the talent of the Outlands.

Another point I would like to mention is event articles and forms. While I was looking over the calendar, I noticed a surprising number of events for which I had not yet received an event form. Autocrats, please remember that your event is not completely official until I have an event form in my office as well as the one that THLd Adam the Persistent receives. If you are in doubt as to whether or not you have sent me a copy of your event form, send me a copy. I would far prefer to have one extra copy than to not have one at all.

The final point I would like to discuss is a bit of a sensitive one. As many of you may or may not know, the Outlandish Herald runs in a deficit. While the corporate office gives me a stipend each month, it does not cover the full cost of printing and postage. Much as I would prefer not to, I am considering following the example of a couple of other kingdoms and begin charging for event articles. So far, I have been presented with three ideas: 1) Leave everything as it is and continue to ask the Kingdom to compensate for the shortfall. 2) Give every non-kingdom event one-half page for free, and charge $10 per half page above that. Give every kingdom event a free full page and charge $10 per half page above that. Based on past Outlandish Heralds, this method would generate approximately $80-90 per month, or nearly an additional $1000 per calendar year. 3) Charge $50 per event for a standard three month run (regardless of article size). If only 15 groups in the Outlands held 2 events each in a calendar year, this formula would generate a staggering $1500 in additional revenue for the Outlandish Herald. Each idea has good and bad points: 1) articles are free, but they must continue to fall within current size guidelines and the OH remains dependant on the kingdom to cover the financial shortfall. 2) Articles can be written to remain no cost, but again, the size guidelines must be followed and the shortfall must be made up by the kingdom. 3) Article size restrictions are lifted and the OH runs a better chance of being self-sufficient, but autocrats need to adjust their fees to be able to pay for the cost of the articles. I would like to get some feedback on these ideas, and hear any other ideas that people may have to help the OH stand on its own. Please feel free to contact me via postal mail or E-mail with comments on this, or any other topic.

In service,

Laird Duncan

Her Ladyship Caelte distinguished herself by providing the most scrolls for Hrothgar and Madigan.

I would like to thank every scribe listed here for their hard work and dedication to providing many varied and beautiful works of art to the people of the Outlands. Their efforts serve as examples to us all, in that they serve the Crown and Kingdom by giving of themselves, tirelessly and repeatedly.

If you wish to create award scrolls for the Crown, please contact me. Send me an example of your work and I will be happy to add you to my list.

Since taking the office of Kingdom Scribe, I have been looking for deputies. I am happy to appoint The Honorable Lady Medhbh O'Duibhdabhoireann of Clontarf from Unser Hafen as my Northern Outlands Deputy. She will be responsible for passing along scribal assignments in the northern part of the Outlands. The Honorable Lady Caelte Caitchairn will remain as the southern deputy. Additionally, I have chosen Lady Killian MacKenzie to be my deputy in charge of education. Killian has a great deal of experience in art education and will work with me coordinating road shows to various parts of the kingdom. The purpose of these road shows will be to facilitate communication and education for the scribes of the Outlands. Look for one coming to your shire or barony after Estrella, or contact Killian if you want to arrange for a class on any aspect of the scribal arts.

In Service to Crown and Kingdom,

Thldy Maredudd Angharad ferch Gwenhyfar

Tournaments Illuminated Editor/Art Director Needed

Tournaments Illuminated Editor/Art Director

The ideal candidate for the Editor position should have professional editorial experience, the ability to meet deadlines and organize a staff, experience with or an assistant in bookkeeping and budgeting, and a vision for continuing to improve Tournaments Illuminated.

Candidates for Art Director position should have experience with modern magazine production, the ability to meet deadlines and the ability to work with printers.

The Editor and the Art Director should live in proximity to each other in order to work together, thus the candidates are encouraged to apply together. Applications should include a resume and clips. Please send applications to the Board of Directors, SCA, Inc., P.O. Box 360789, Milpitas, CA 95036-0789; and to the Society Chronicler, Sarah R. Rogers, 2204 N 950 E, Lafayette, IN 47905-9613. Applications Deadline is March 1, 1999.

Society Minister of Arts & Sciences Needed

Position Available: Society Minister of Arts & Sciences

The Minister of Arts and Sciences is the officer responsible for fostering the study of period culture and technology, and of methods for producing historically accurate artifacts and performances. Duties include coordinating the efforts of kingdom officers in the field (regardless of whether or not the functions related to "Arts" and "Sciences" are combined in one job or kept separate); promoting the dissemination of accurate information about the fields under study; assisting the Chronicler of the Society and the editors of the corporate publications in confirming the validity of research presented to the membership; and performing other duties assigned by the Board as directed.

This is an unpaid position. Applicants should be able to travel to other Kingdoms as necessary, and have easy access to phone, mail, and e-mail (although e-mail is not required, it is highly desirable). An applicant must be a paid member of the Society, and be able to meet quarterly reporting deadlines in a timely manner.

Laurel and Pelican Sovereign of Arms Needed

Position Openings: Laurel and Pelican Sovereign of Arms

The Laurel Sovereign of Arms (Laurel) is the principal heraldic officer of the Society and the head of the College of Arms. Laurel is responsible for fostering the study and practice of heraldry, processing submissions, and overseeing the heraldic activities of the Known World.

The Pelican Sovereign of Arms (Pelican) is a major deputy of Laurel. Because the duties required to operate the College of Arms and process submissions are so great, this position was split in two several years ago. Previous incarnations of Laurel and Pelican have split the job into names, and devices & administration. The current split is for submissions and administration. Applicants may use either of these configurations, or a new one which better fit the applicant's skills. The Board will accept applications from an individual or a team to perform the duties of these offices; however, they will not accept applications where only part of these duties will be assumed.

Laurel and Pelican are unpaid positions. Laurel currently requires approximately 20 hours a week (primarily submissions processing) plus about 10-20 hours a week for Laurel staff. Also required is office space sufficient for 18 filing cabinets, 27 boxes of "to be archived" submissions files, five boxes of "currently in process" submissions, five boxes of binders with "archive" copies of armory, and about 20 more boxes of assorted books, etc.), plus the computers, computer programs and documentation, backup tapes and disks, printer, photocopier, and flatbed color scanner.

The position requires tact and patience, local staff to assist in the weekly filing (an average of 3 people at least once a week), armory and onomastic knowledge, bureaucratic ability, the ability to meet tight deadlines and produce a Laurel letter of Acceptance and Return monthly, computer literacy and word processing skills, e-mail access, and time and ability to travel.

Resumes must be made in writing to Laurel/Pelican Resume, SCA Inc., Box 360789, Milpitas, CA 95036. Resumes must be received by the Milpitas office no later than March 1, 1999.

TidBits

The game we are playing; why be courtly?

The two answers are simple, because it is fun, and because it is the game we are playing. The society is recreating the Middle Ages not as they were but as they should have been, or in other words, only the good parts. And they best part of recreating another time is letting go of all of the aspects of current culture that are less desirable.

When I joined the SCA I was so shy I could not talk to someone I did not know, after joining the society and learning how to 'don' courtly behavior, there was no longer was a lack for words. I was very fortunate, the person who introduced me to the society had the forethought to give me The Known World Handbook. I memorized it, and found that I easily fit in, so easily that people kept asking what kingdom I had come from. Quite a change from not being able to say hello to a stranger.

By learning how to identify rank, bow properly, greet, and complement someone, I could approach or react to anyone with ease, the script had already been written. As years went by I found I could improvise and elaborate, it is a wonderful game. Great resources for learning courtly graces are, reading the aforementioned Known World Handbook, or asking the guidance of someone who seems to have 'gotten it'.

To get you started here are some basic suggestions:
Try to be as cheerful and friendly as you can, if you are in a terrible mood then take yourself to some place quiet so that you may relax and compose yourself. Bow; incline your head and shoulders with a smile to everyone you see, if you walk past someone with a coronet or crown on the take the time to make a reverence. Said rev-er-ance, a reverence is a period bow and is much more elegant than a 19th century servant bob (where you lower your body vertically) to reverence, rest your weight on one foot, place the other foot forward, and the incline your body over your extended leg. When bowing to the Crown keep lowering your body till they can see the top of your head. Do not speak rudely; don't talk during court, or if you must take yourself out of the hall or far away from the activity. Don't swear or talk about mundane things.

If you can do just these three things you will find that both your enjoyment of the game and you ease in interacting with others will increase tenfold.

Mistress Celine Jane' d'Hermain

Event Announcement Information

Unto the populace of the great and glorious Outlands, does Laird Duncan MacAllister, Kingdom Chronicler, send greetings. Listed below you will find the requirements that have been set forth for Outlands Event Announcements. Please note that those items listed as 'Mandatory' must be present in the appropriate event announcement, or I will be unable to print the announcement.

Mandatory in ALL event announcements:

- □ Name of the Event
- □ Sponsoring Group
- □ Event Date(s)
- □ Mundane name and address of the site
- □ Site Open and Close times
- □ Contact Information for the Autocrat
- □ Contact Information for Reservations (if not Autocrat)
- □ Contact Information for Head Cook (If serving food)
- □ Contact Information for additional organizers (Crash, fighting, etc.)
- • If reservations are being taken:
    - □ Deadline for acceptance
    - □ All associated costs (site, feast, discounts, etc.)
    - □ How to make checks payable

Mandatory in FINAL event announcement (Month of):

- □ All above information
- □ Alcohol Status (Wet, dry, discreetly wet, etc.)
- □ Directions to site (include distances, street names, etc.)
    - • Do NOT assume signs will always be visible
- □ All associated costs (site, feast, discounts, etc.)

Optional, but highly recommended:

- □ A map to the site
- □ Schedule of events
- □ Feast menu (if feast is provided)
- □ Other pertinent site information (pet restrictions, water availability, etc.)

'Contact Information' as mentioned above is defined as: SCA Name, Mundane Name, address, phone number with area code, and an E-mail address if one is available.

Autocrats, please take notice of the article size constraints, and try to stay within them. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A March event MUST run in the March OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the three (3) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Kingdom Events (Crown, Coronation, A&S Competition/Collegium, and others as designated by the Crown) receive one (1) page in the publications prior to the event, and two (2) pages the month of the event. Non-Kingdom Events receive one-half (½) page in the publications prior to the event, and one (1) page the month of the event. Additional space may be purchased for any publication month at the current advertising rates. Current advertising rates are listed in the front of the Outlandish Herald. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication. The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (½) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article.

In service to the Outlands,

Duncan
